Volopa for the Arts & Entertainment

Volopa has been providing global payments services for the arts and entertainment industries since 2011.

We understand that not all clients have the same needs, so provide a flexible solution with bespoke features easily added.

Volopa's "Shared Wallet" for Aviation

We've created tailored solutions specifically for the Aviation industry allowing our clients to concentrate on where their flights are going while we direct their funds to the right place. One of these is our Shared Wallet.

As your company grows, gaining control over employee spending can become increasingly complex. Loading individual company cards in multiple currencies that your employees spend in requires unnecessary manual work resulting in time-consuming admin and unique approval workflows.

Volopa's first-of-its-kind shared company wallet feature solves this problem. Shared wallets are the perfect solution for companies who need to track their spending across multiple end-users.

Volopa Business for Sports People

We have a long history of working with sports people and teams helping them with their international travel spend and overseas payments.

These busy individuals require simple, quick solutions to allow them to concentrate on their own sporting goals. Volopa does the heavy lifting on the payments side!

Our core Values

We believe success is achieved through our core values of excellence, transparency, innovation, team-work and respect.

Excellence

Our pursuit of excellence, we set high standards in everything we undertake both internally and externally and constantly look to find that extra one percent, understanding that excellence is not a single act.

Team-Work

We have an outstanding, experienced and credible team drawn from all sectors of the financial services industry. We look to select, keep and develop the most talented people. We ensure that we have great communication both internally and externally and remain focused on the team result, evidenced by our continued growth and strong customer advocacy.

Respect

We respect everyone including our competition. We ensure we listen to our customers and develop strong collaborative relationships to enhance our business and exceed expectations in everything we do

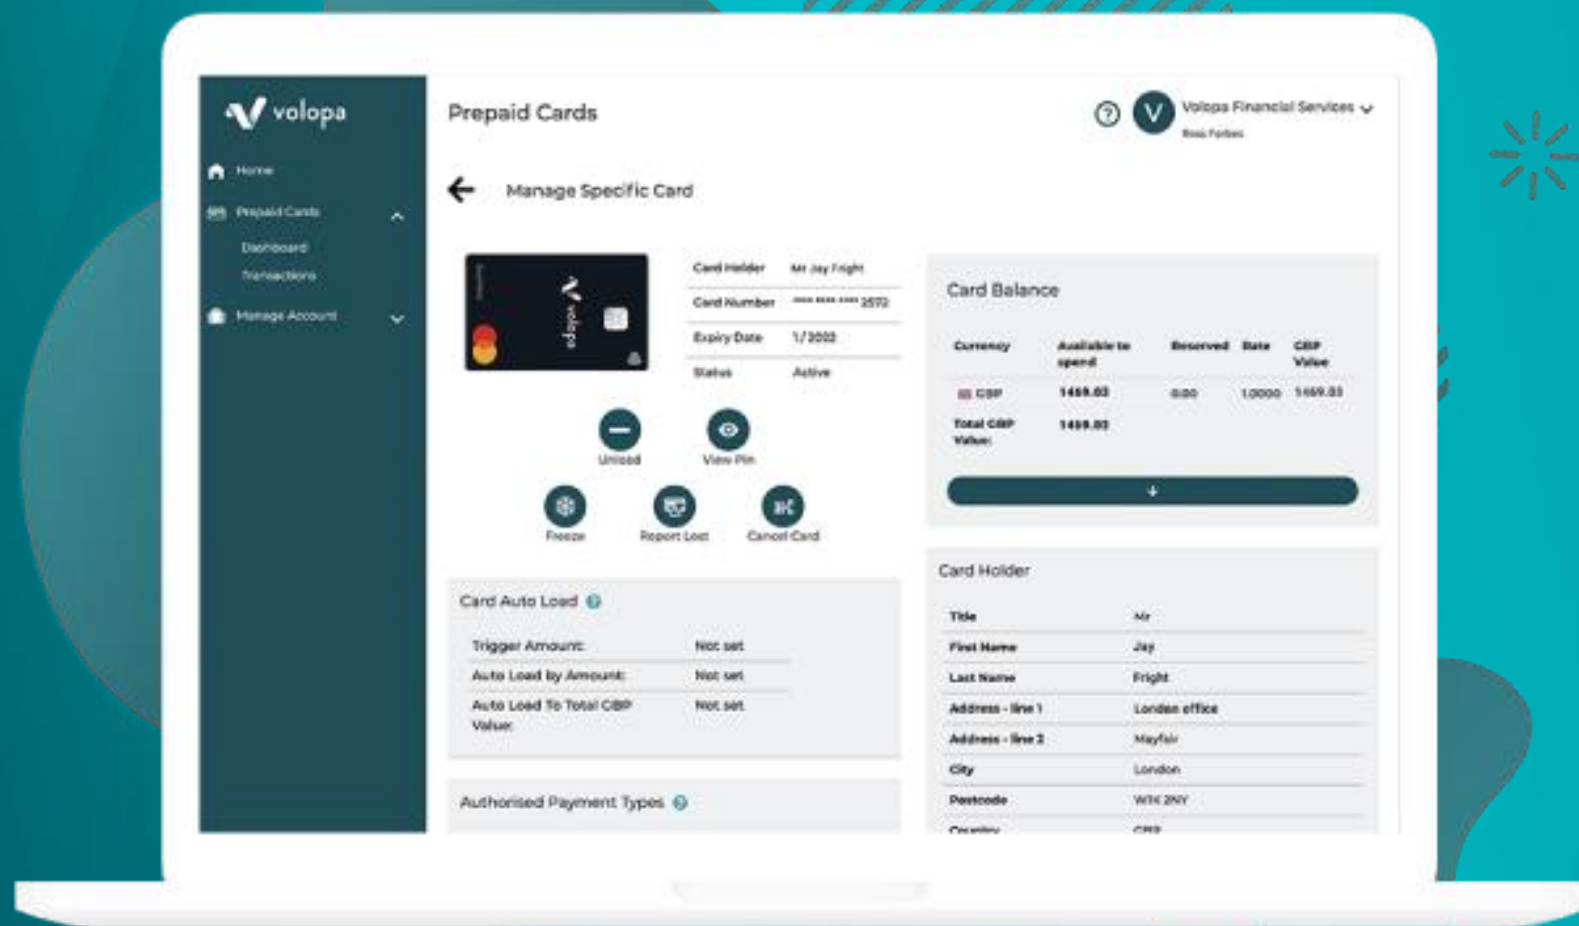

Transparency

Our customers can see clearly what they are paying for and see value in everything we do. All our main board are FCA approved, embrace our core values and strive to create an environment of openness, accountability and trust.

Agility & Innovation

We are already leaders in the FinTech sector with our current innovative products and will maintain this lead through continued investment in people as well as research and development. We constantly look for new and creative ideas to develop products and services that are both practical and relevant in an ever-changing financial landscape.
